Our website uses cookies to improve your online experience. By using our website, you agree that this Cookies Policy applies to that use.

WHAT IS A COOKIE?

A cookie is a small piece of information sent by a web server to a web browser, which enables the server to collect information from the browser. We use cookies to identify you when you visit our Emerson | College Campus Community website to improve your online experience. More specifically, we use cookies and other tracking technologies for the following purposes:

- Assisting you in navigation;
- Assisting in registration to our events, login, and your ability to provide feedback;
- Understand your use of our products, services or applications;
- Assisting with our promotional and marketing efforts

There are different types of cookies:

SESSION COOKIES

Session cookies last for the duration of your visit and are deleted when you close your browser. They allow a website to identify that a user is navigating from page to page, supporting website security or basic functionality. They contain no personal information that can be used to identify an individual.

FIRST-PARTY COOKIES

These are cookies that we use for the functionality of our website and to understand how our website is being used.

THIRD-PARTY COOKIES

Third-party cookies are cookies that come from other websites (for example social media sites that we link to). We try to limit that number of third-party cookies and use a cookies monitoring tool to regularly review the third-party cookies on our website.

CHOOSING YOUR OPTIONS

It is important to us that visitors to our website can choose the level of cookies that they feel comfortable. Our cookies tool power by One Trust enables you to choose your cookie preferences and accept or reject cookies (except strictly necessary cookies) by clicking on the “cookie settings” button.

Below you can find more information about the individual cookies we use and the purposes for which we use. Please be aware that because we are always updating and improving our service, this list may not be comprehensive. Check back for updates.

We classify cookies in the following categories:

STRICTLY NECESSARY COOKIES

These cookies are necessary for the website to function and cannot be switched off in our systems. They are usually only set in response to actions made by you which amount to a request for services, such as setting your privacy preferences, logging in or filling in forms. You can set your browser to block or alert you about these cookies, but some parts of the site will not then work. These cookies do not store any personally identifiable information.
